

Statutory Consultation Period
 IoACC are legally obliged to consult with certain stakeholders known as Statutory Consultees. Statutory Consultees will have 5 weeks to make an observation or to object to the proposal. Statutory Consultees will always include the following; Police, Fire and Ambulance Services, Road Haulage Association, Freight Transport Association, Town and Community Councils & Local Elected Members.

Objection received

Yes

No

Consideration of objections (and attempts to resolve them)

Notice of Proposal
 The formal consultation stage of a TRO is open for all to comment on. The proposed scheme will be advertised in the local press, uploaded to the IoACC website and a copy of the draft order can be found on deposit at Cyswllt Môn and a locally situated public library. There is a 21 days period in which to make an objection to the proposed Order.

Objection resolved

Objection received

No

Yes

Yes

No

IoACC to decide if it is to proceed with order making process.

Proceed with order making process

Consideration of objections (and attempts to resolve them)

Objection resolved

No

Yes

IoACC Solicitor makes an Order giving date of implementation

Report submitted to the Planning & Orders Committee

Notice of making an order published. 6 weeks objection period on procedural grounds.

